Monica McInerney has long been one of my favourite Australian authors and her latest novel, "Hello from the Gillespies" was no disappointment. McInerney is the master of relating the intricacies of ordinary family relationships with both empathy and humour.

Book Review: "Hello from the Gillespies" - Empty Nesters ...

Monica McInerney's laugh-inducing—and refreshingly honest—novel is the perfect antidote to both. For 33 years, Angela Gillespie has sent a holiday newsletter extolling her family's virtues and the charmed lives they're all leading. Until this year, when she decides to tell everyone the truth: It's been a terrible year for the Gillespies.
