Princess Of Glass 2 Jessica

From my experience, Jessica Day George's books have proved to be light, fun, and inventive reads. Well, Princess of Glass definitely fit in that description. I loved the unique way that she retold the Cinderella story. It was so much different than any other Cinderella story I've read/seen, and I loved that. Creativity = very epic.

Princess of Glass — Jessica Day George

Princess of Glass is, as you might guess from the title, a retelling of the Cinderella story, but told with a twist (or more than one.) For one thing, although Poppy is the main character, she is not Cinderella, but stands, in a sense, in place of one of the stepsisters. And Ms. George turns many of the Cinderella tropes on their heads.
