God in a Manger, Part 3: Jesus Is Treasure. The word only appears four times in the New Testament—maybe most memorably in Hebrews 1:3, where Jesus is said to be "the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature ." Here the author of Hebrews uses the word in reference to the oneness of God.

Question: "Why was Jesus born in a manger?" Answer: It is a common saying at Christmastime that Jesus Christ was "born in a manger." Of course, it wasn't possible for Him to actually be born in the manger, but that's where Mary laid Him after His birth (Luke 2:7). Although we are not sure of the exact location of where Jesus was born, we do know that it was near Bethlehem and that ...

The birth of any child is a miracle; but this was Immanuel, God with us. The manger was more than an empty bed of straw. Jesus is no mere plastic doll and for that matter no mere human being. Jesus was conceived by the Holy Spirit of God, and is no less than incarnate deity. Colossians 1 describes him as the image of the invisible God.

God Is In the Manger | Unity Baptist Church

The manger is so important because it reminds us that God has become completely human, and understands poverty, pain and anguish. Now, the romantic notion of the manger is quite problematic (that nostalgic image evoked by children's choirs singing "Away in a manger" with angelic smiles).

God is Food in the Manger - St. Matthews Lutheran Church

God in a Manger When Jesus came to earth at Christmastime, it was to reveal God to us. When we look at the incarnation, (where God took on flesh) we see several important reasons: the first and primary was to accomplish salvation. Second, it was done in such a way as to fulfill the Scriptures. Third, it was to reveal what God was like to us.

God in a Manger - rentonchristianfellowship.com

Christians believe that God himself came to live with us. Jesus was born of the virgin Mary and through the Holy Spirit: he was both fully human and also fully divine. His nature is the same as God the Father, so Jesus is powerful, good and is the Creator of all things, but yet he humbled himself to come and live among us and show us his love.

Firstly, a manger is cold. It's a damp sort of cold that chills your right to the bones. The only heat, is the body heat of the cows, when they come in to feed and when they breathe, it makes clouds of steam, in the freezing air. It's cold in the manger. Secondly, a manger is dark. Our manger is located underground, beneath the barn.
