Ginger Rogers is one of the greatest screen legends. her autobiography was one of the best books i have ever read. she tells each story of how she became the actress she was with such care and love. of course the best parts of the book are when Ginger talks about her movies with Fred Astaire (there's a reason the cover picture is her from the "Pick Yourself Up" dance from "Swing Time"). it is ...

Ginger: My Story by Ginger Rogers - Goodreads

Ginger My Story . Chapter One. The Disappearance. My mother told me I was dancing before I was born. She could feel my toes tapping wildly inside her for months. Prophetic as this was, my birth was a dramatic one in the steamy heat of a Missouri summer. In July of 1911, Lela Owens McMath moved to Independence, Missouri.

Ginger Rogers was born to entertain and it turns out she can author a personal biography pretty well too! Her story is perfect for those who like to be reminded of great actors and how important it is to live life well. Ginger was always a star, on and off the silver screen; a fine lady with a quick wit.

I enjoyed reading her story.
