This is a review of Passage, with spoilers whited out at the end. I have wracked my brain about how to get this content from my interview with Connie Willis to Passage fans without wrecking the book for everyone who hasn't read it yet. The interview stuff is good, and I want fans to get to see it ...

Passage by Connie Willis - Smart Bitches, Trashy Books

Passage is my second Connie Willis read and it will not be my last. The characters are as well done and believable as the characters from Doomsday Book, yet the plot line is in a totally different genre. That Willis can succeed so well in these disparate genres is a statement of her capabilities and shows she is deserving of her following ...

Passage Quotes by Connie Willis - Goodreads

Love Connie Willis, but this was just "good" Having said that, good is still pretty good. The basic premise seemed a bit oversimplified for a neurosurgeon to let himself fall into and there was a lot of repetition near the end to where it felt a bit like today's favorite genre "the gaming puzzle" format.
