History of Philosophy (Historia de la Filosofía): Julian ...

A compelling, if sometimes hard to understand, history of philosophy. Marias is an insightful authority on these matters, but often can be somewhat of a self-promoter in his writing, almost always hearkening back to Ortega and the Madrid School (to which he was a member) in his analysis.

History of Philosophy by Julián Marías - Goodreads

Influential secondary figures are treated extensively as well. As a one-volume reference to the history of philosophy, Marias's text succeeds admirably. The book has four parts: Greek Philosophy, Christianity, Medieval Philosophy, and Modern Philosophy, this last part being the largest in extent and broadest in thematic scope.

PHILOSOPHY AND ITS HISTORY. Philosophy's relationship to its history is unlike that of science, for example, to its own history. In the latter case, the two things are distinct: science, on the one hand, and on the other, what science was, that is, its history.

History of Philosophy by Julian Marias - Read Online

Fine history of philosophy from a continental point of view. In the Kindle edition, the index is non-functional. Too bad, as it limits its use for targeted quick reference.
