Popular Crime: Reflections on the Celebration of Violence ...

As much about popular crime itself as it is the literature of popular crime. I like Bill James' approach to the subject: He's not a credentialed expert on the subject, just a guy who's read a hell of a lot of True Crime books and formed some interesting opinions on them (and how society copes with violent crime).

Popular Crime: Reflections on the Celebration of Violence ...

It is a few years old (2011) so don't expect the high-profile crimes of the last few years to be included. Personally, I was annoyed by a sprinkling of typos throughout, but it happens. And it didn't take away from the masterful synthesis of two centuries of "popular crime" in America.
