Preparing for Adolescence Mass Market Paperback - August, 1999 - amazon.com

The book is not overly long, which should make it easier to get teens to read it. I would recommend parents read the book before giving it to their pre-teens, so that they can be prepared for discussions rising from the book. Amazon's price was excellent, the book arrived very quickly and in perfect condition.

I read this as a pre-teen and again when my kids were pre-teens. It's a good book, but ironically I can't say it actually prepared me much for my teen years. It's probably best utilised by being read to a child and used as a springboard for discussion, rather than given to a child to read on their ...
