A talented young musician falls for her band's new lead singer, who may be just using her to achieve success—and sex. Paisley literally thinks in drumbeats—her life centers on percussion—so being the drummer for a band that's practicing for a major music festival, Texapalooza, seems like the answer to her dreams.

PARADISE by Jill S. Alexander | Kirkus Reviews

"Do the thing you love to do. Hank Williams died at the ripe old age of twentynine. Stevie Ray Vaughan at thirty-five. Jesus at thirtythree. Don't think you're special and the Lord's gonna bless you with time." — Jill S. Alexander, Paradise

Release Party! JILL S. ALEXANDER - Paradise | BookPeople

Review: First off, I really think a different cover would have been better. I suppose there's romance in this book, but the main theme is music. Obviously there's the romantic subject of Paradise, whose real name is Gabriela (which to be honest, I found kind of funny, oops), but it's not the main thing.
