In no way is Patti LuPone a "diva". She is someone with a backbone who will stand up against someone treating her unfairly...most specifically in this memoir, Broadway king Andrew Lloyd Webber. LuPone does not gloss over anything, beginning with Juilliard and her romance with fellow student, Kevin Kline.

Patti LuPone: A Memoir by Patti LuPone - Goodreads

"Patti LuPone: A Memoir," written with Digby Diehl, represents no dazzling literary feat. As a work of literature it's more or less negligible, although the workmanlike prose is enlivened with zesty infusions of gum-chewing New York humor.
