Urban Fantasy is an ongoing saga that focuses on one or two specific characters (usually at some point romantically linked), and specifically featuring a no-nonsense kick ass chick. Their story evolves throughout the course of a series, while fighting bad guys, and trying to make their "paranormal world" a better place.

While my books are considered Urban Fantasy as far as marketing and shelving goes, what I write, in my opinion, is supernatural crime fiction. At it's heart, my series revolves around solving crimes. The main characters are on the side of law while the villains are criminals in some form or another. Much of Urban...

Urban Fantasy, also sometimes called "Modern Fantasy", is a genre that combines common fantasy conventions with a modern setting. note The name "Urban Fantasy" is sometimes taken to imply that all works in the genre must take place in a large city, but this is not the case.

Urban Fantasy - TV Tropes

In many cases, some police officers are against the heroes, particularly if an antagonist impostor has torn up the town or the heroes are not very careful about collateral damage. In urban fantasy, some police officers may be uneasy about working with a sorcerer, werewolf or other supernatural creature.
