Ghost Girl Torey L Hayden

Review: Ghost Girl by Torey Hayden. This book is about child abuse. I recommend that only adults 18 or older read this. It is about a eight year old girl who has a problem of being mutely uncommunicative to people she comes in contact with. She was placed in a special class at school with four other disabled students.

Ghost Girl by Torey L. Hayden - Goodreads

GHOST GIRL was Torey's first book to upset publishers and to be returned for re-writing. They disliked the unclear ending. As it is a true story and not fiction, Torey found it difficult to come up with a more suitable ending.

A gripping true-life horror story from child- psychologist/teacher Hayden (Just Another Kid, 1988, etc.) about her growing conviction that a child in her special education class was abused by a group of adults, possibly a satanic cult. Hayden's new teaching job in a small-town school in an unnamed prairie state is shadowed by tragedy: her predecessor committed suicide.
