Outcast by Adrienne Kress is a YA novel set in a small town in the southern US. The blurb was the factor that made me want to read it. Unfortunately, the blurb was also the high point of the entire book. Outcast was severely overwritten. I felt that, with the possible exception of the dialogue, just about every second sentence could have been cut.

From my blog: On Starships and Dragonwings I was very excited to be able to read Outcast by Adrienne Kress since that cover is just too fun! I was also quite excited about the "angels" that the description talks about, since they definitely don't sound like the angels we have been reading about much before.
