Her Him 2 Carey Heywood

Her is the second book in the Him series by Carey Heywood. I wouldn't recommend this as a standalone, as Him was told entirely from Sarah's POV, this one is retold from Will's POV. The entire book isn't a retelling, but the majority of the situations in Him are re-addressed from the opposite perspective.

Her (Him & Her #2) Carey Heywood. There's this girl. She's in my English class. She sits in the desk next to mine. I see her everyday, but I've never really noticed her. We've been paired up to do a project on the book Sarah, Plain and Tall, which is funny since that's her name too. Yesterday, I went over to her house to work on it.

I read Him a while back, before Her was even out, and I remember not really enjoying it. **I should say there will be some spoilers so if you haven't read Him yet and don't want to know what happens don't continue reading.** I didn't like Sarah in Him. I hated her poor me, Will broke my heart I am the victim routine.

Carey Heywood was a new author for me when I read book one, Him. Both books, Him and Her had been sitting in my Audible library untouched for a while. I needed something new so I settled on this Duet and they were delightful. The writing is good and the narration was perfect for these stories. Her is Will's story.
