I was excited by a new Perry offering but perhaps too much of Louise Bagshawe's brilliant book Desire which Perry recommended in a magazine article stayed with her when writing this. Sadly with Perfect Strangers everything from characterisation, the thriller nature of the story, to the chemistry between the protagonists, and all but the most fleeting romantic/sex scenes just seemed like pale imitations of Bagshawe's much better read which saddens me as I genuinely want to find my old delight in Perry.
