Reconciliation. Reconciliation involves a change in the relationship between God and man or man and man. It assumes there has been a breakdown in the relationship, but now there has been a change from a state of enmity and fragmentation to one of harmony and fellowship. In Romans 5:6-11, Paul says that before reconciliation we were powerless,...

What is Reconciliation and Why is it so Important?

The priest serves not as a particular man — certainly not as a mere busybody, or even as a psychologist of the spirit — but as the visible representative of Christ's forgiving love. This sacrament concretely applies the redemption Christ enacted for those sins which negate, and even sometimes destroy, the bond of love between the soul and God.
