Repairman Jack [10]-Harbingers About book: "As requested, sir." "Thank you." As Ybarra left, the Oculus picked up the paper but did not unfold it. He feared the headline. If it said nothing about the Bay Ridge apartment, the woman and the child would have another day, perhaps more, to live. But if the story was there...

What did you love best about Harbingers? I have read all the Repairman Jack Novels by F. Paul Wilson. What I love about listening to them is the performance by the narrator CHRISTOPHER PRICE. The early releases of the RMJ novels The Tomb, Bloodline and By The Sword had a horrible narrator; but all the RMJ releases with the narrator of ...

F. Paul Wilson never fails to deliver, and this is particularly true of this latest volume in the REPAIRMAN JACK series. Wilson manages with each new book a fascinating balancing act: he stays true to formula (in a manner of speaking) and brings back those elements of horror, suspense and mystery his readers have come to expect from him, yet at the same time each book is as fresh as the first one.
