Lauren Blakely's Playing With Her Heart is the third book in her Caught Up In Us series and, in my opinion, it's the best one yet. Blakely writes with such vivid detail that it's easy to picture the story coming to life. The characters are three-dimensional, with detailed backstories that provide insight into their current states of mind.

I really liked how all of the drama was handled in Playing With Her Heart. It would have been easy for Jill to have gotten involved with Patrick, gotten caught with Davis, and then ruined the show.

Similarly, it would have been easy to Jill to make Davis think she's using him, and cause a big fight. Neither of these things happen.
