Girl V Boy Yvonne Collins

The book I read was Girl v Boy by Yvonne Collins. This book was about a girl named Luisa and a boy named Tyler and they got in a battle of who will win in the contest of the ceremony. When Luisa meets this boy and she found out that he was in this ceremony too.

Girl v. Boy by Yvonne Collins - Goodreads

If you are looking for a super fast yet super cute book to read, then Girl v. Boy is for you. I absolutely adored the take on this "Battle of the Sexes," story. Up until her sophomore year, Luisa Perez has always been "just another girl." In fact, she is one of the nine Luisa Perez's in her school; un-unique to say the least.

The ending was predictable, yes, but the beginning and middle were not as predictable, thus sparing me from reading something painfully boring. That being said, GIRL V. BOY was definitely an enjoyable read that will appeal to high school girls looking for a hearty dose of rapid-fire battle-of-the-sexes dialogue and a solid romance.
