God Enters Stage Left Tim

God Enters Stage Left offers a fresh, front row view to an ancient faith. The grand story of the Bible is narrated as a six act play, shining a light on an irreligious plot line that is all too often misunderstood. Spoiler alert: this story may deliver a plot twist that could change your life. The book is available on amazon.ca.

You definitely don't have to worry about me being afraid of offering critiques (especially from a comfortable distance on the Internet) ☐☐ To put it another way, Bruxy sums up the Gospel with four points presented equally while I prefer to see the Kingdom as the heart of the Gospel and the other 3 points as fleshing out what the Kingdom looks like.

God Enters Stage Left by Tim Day - Anabaptist Redux

About a year ago, I was given a copy of Tim Day's God Enters Stage Left. I finally got an opportunity to read it. The basic idea of the book is that we need an understanding of the big story that is found in the Bible. There is a plot that begins somewhere and goes in a certain direction.
