It's funny that everyone keeps mentioning "Romancing Mr. Bridgerton" since it's "The Duke & I" that features the best friend's little sister. I think it's probably because we (well at least I do) look at it from the heroine's perspective — so we're intrigued by the heroine falling for her best friend's older brother!

If you don't know how to comfort someone who has lost a sibling, the best thing you can do is ask them how you can help. Tell them you are available to listen and remember to avoid interjecting too often with your own experiences when doing so. Acknowledge their loss with a simple statement, such as "I heard about the loss of your brother.
