Play Dead David Rosenfelt

Play Dead. When he learns that a beautiful retriever is scheduled to be put down after biting its owner, he decides to represent the dog in court. He is successful, but soon his delight at saving the animal's life turns to amazement—or at least bemusement—when he discovers that the dog may be a key witness in a five-year-old murder.

Play Dead | David Rosenfelt

Play Dead is not just a legal thriller, but a also political thriller complete with conspiracies and cover ups. High-powered rifles play a part, people get killed, and Andy himself, usually totally cowardly and ineffective in any violent confrontation, becomes momentarily an action hero.

Comment: David Rosenfelt's sixth legal thriller to feature lawyer Andy Carpenter opens with Andy rescuing a 7-year-old golden retriever from the "death chamber" because its owner reported he had been bitten by the dog. In such cases, a dog cannot be put up for adoption, so unless it is reclaimed by its owner it is put down.
